Privately nestled and bordering leafy reserve to the rear, this dual-level home presents an opportunity of superb space, undeniable comfort and future potential. Promoting easy flexibility through its elegant design, it displays a choice of formal and informal zones, a central two-way kitchen, and a fully usable tiered yard bringing tropical resort vibes with swaying palms, covered entertaining and an in-ground pool. Wide side access and plenty of room to build a granny flat elevate this quality residence above comparable properties, in a peaceful street minutes from Macarthur Square and the station.

- Inviting warmth meets high functionality for modern family living
