A sweet lifestyle property with options to explore down the track, this red brick residence boasts a broad base of appeal ? from the keen renovator on the hunt for their next project, to the young couple desiring a spacious and central first home. Be charmed by its private, peaceful setting, solid timber floors throughout and sunny backyard providing room for a granny flat (STCA), while enjoying all the family convenience inherent to this popular area; there's a choice of schools and recreational parklands, corner shops and takeaways, transport links and the town centre in easy reach.

- Comfortable and cosy living with value-adding potential in spades
- Lounge plus dining, all-new lights + blinds, freshly painted throughout
- Generous blank-canvas backyard ? let your imagination run wild
